

ANNOUNCEMENT

27 July 2016

The Board of Trustees of the Textile Museum of Canada announce that Executive Director, Dr. Shauna McCabe will be leaving the TMC at the end of July. An intensive search for a successor will now begin to ensure a smooth transition.

Board Chair, Dr. Adrienne Hood, says, “It is with great regret that we bid farewell to Shauna who has so ably guided the Museum in new and expanded directions over the last six years. She has been instrumental in the revitalization of the TMC during her tenure; from the formation of new curatorial partnerships and new sources of sponsorship, to the upgrading of our facilities and the stabilization of our finances, while ensuring that we are on the cutting edge of curatorial practice with award-winning websites and relevant exhibitions that reflect our mandate and mission. Museum attendance has increased and the TMC’s reputation has been enhanced under her leadership.”

The last few years have been a time of exciting change and growth for the TMC. The Museum continues to look to the future and opportunities to redefine the institution and improve its sustainability.

The Board of Trustees is greatly appreciative of Shauna’s outstanding contribution to the TMC and for the positive impact that her leadership has had on the Museum both locally, nationally and internationally.

Enquiries should be addressed to boardchair@textilemuseum.ca